AMERICA HONORS GREAT INVENTOR TODAY

50TH ANNIVERSARY OF EDISON'S GREAT ACHIEVEMENT

PERFECTION OF THE ELECTRIC LIGHT TO BE FITTINGLY
CELEBRATED TODAY

PRESIDENT HOOVER AND PARTY ATTEND CEREMONIES AT DEARBORN, MICH.

Dearborn, Mich., Oct. 21. — (U.P.) — President Hoover arrived here shortly before ten o'clock this morning to participate in ceremonies commemorating the 50th anniversary of Thomas A. Edison's perfection of the electric light.

A heavy drizzle of rain which had threatened to mar Light's Golden Jubilee in honor of Edison had ceased when the president arrived but there was no indication of sunlight.

As the president and Mrs. Hoover alighted from their special train at the Dearborn station they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, whose guests they will be for the day, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Edison.

President Hoover will dedicate tonight the Edison Institute of Technology here and which Henry Ford established to advance scientific research.

As a part of the dedicatory ceremony he will witness reenactment of the experiment through which Edison on October 21, 1879, perfected the filament light which hastened purposes.

The dedicatory exercises scheduled to begin at 7:30 P. M. will be broadcast over a nationwide radio chain. They will be held in the rehabilitated laboratory, moved here from Menlo Park, N. J., in which Edison conducted his early experiments.

President Hoover's party left the presidential special train at Dearborn to board an old fashioned Grand Trunk train, a replica of the train on which Edison sold newspapers as a boy more than 60 years ago.

From Dearborn the old train carried the party to the old Smith Creek station, entry port to the early American village of Greenfield, which Ford reconstructed as a part of the technology institute.

From the moment of his arrival with Mrs. Hoover in Dearborn the president's program was in the hands of Henry Ford, who has devoted himself for almost a year to preparations for today's tribute to his buddy "Tom," who gave the world the incandescent light just a half century ago.

Leaving Washington at 4:30 Sunday afternoon, the president enjoyed a comfortable journey in the private car "Maryland" through Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio.

Nearly a thousand persons were at the Washington union station to see President and Mrs. Hoover start their first long trip since they entered the White House. Cheers greeted both as they posed for photographers from the rear platform of the car.

Other members of the party include Secretary of War James M. Good, George Akerson, White House secretary; Lt. Colonel Campbell Hodges, the president's military aide; Lt. Commander Joel T. Boone, White House physician, and a group of office aides.

At Cincinnati the president was joined by Speaker Nicholas Longworth of the house and Major General Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers.

After a hasty survey of the old landmarks with Edison, the president will start a motor tour of Detroit.

The tour route will end at the city hall where accommodations have been made for a crowd of 200,000 to witness the arrival of the president.

Early today the presidential special passed through the village of Milan, Ohio, where Edison was born. The president was still asleep but he was reminded of Edison's birthplace as he sat at the breakfast table with Mrs. Hoover.

After the Detroit tour, the president's program called for a private luncheon at the Ford home, an inspection tour of Ford's river route plants and a brief rest before the dinner tonight.

The president will leave after his address to board his train which will leave for Cincinnati about midnight. At Cincinnati tomorrow, Mr. Hoover will dedicate a marker in Eden Park commemorating completion of the nine-foot channel in the Ohio river between Pittsburgh and Cairo, Ill.

After a six-hour stop in Cincinnati the party will board a river steamer for Louisville where the president will make the principal address of the trip on Wednesday.

By J. R. CONNOR, JR.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 21.—Henry Ford's long planned project for a "big party" for his old friend, Thomas Alva Edison, was realized today as 500 noted Americans headed by President Hoover joined in personal tribute to Edison while the rest of the world listened to the celebration by radio.

The occasion was the Golden Jubilee celebration commemorating the creation 50 years ago tonight of the inventor's incandescent light.

The day's program in honor of Edison started at 10 o'clock when President and Mrs. Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Edison arrived at the Old Smith, Mich., railroad station in Ford's early American village at Dearborn. Almost 60 years ago the train butcher and newsboy Edison was running along

TWO CHILDREN TRAPPED IN HOME BURN TO DEATH

Waukesha, Wis., Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Stanley Sehnman, 8, and his brother, Bertram, 6, were burned to death at Eagle, a small resort town near here, today when fire of undetermined origin trapped them in their bedroom. William Lynn, an uncle, was severely burned trying to rescue the children.

MYSTERY DEATH CONFRONTS POLICE OF THE CAPITAL

MRS. AURELIA F. DREYFUSS,
BEAUTIFUL DIVORCEE,
FALLS TO DEATH

BROKER, WHO ACCOMPANIED HER, HELD BY POLICE FOR QUESTIONING

Washington, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Another mysterious death has been added to the many confronting the capital police, recently criticized by congressional leaders for their activities in the growing number of crimes here.

Interest here turned today to accounts of the death of Mrs. Aurelia F. Dreyfuss, beautiful 29-year-old New York divorcee, who fell 20 feet from the balcony of the Potomac River Boat Club as strains of "Home Sweet Home" closed a dance.

Edmund J. McBrain, New York broker, who accompanied Mrs. Dreyfuss, the divorced wife of Herbert Dreyfuss, wealthy New York broker and former dollar-a-year man in the U. S. shipping board offices, was held by police for questioning. He was the last person seen with the victim before her death, officers said.

McBrain said he had been friendly with Mrs. Dreyfuss for seven years. He was the "other man" named by Dreyfuss in the divorce action.

According to police, McBrain said he had left his companion to get their wraps and upon returning found she had fallen from the balcony. The divorcee died in a hospital.

The increasing number of crimes and mysteries in the nation's capital recently caused Senator Heflin, democrat, Alabama, to observe that murder is running rampant here and Senator Blaine, republican, Wisconsin, to say that "the accursed hand of dead politics has grasped the city."

Confesses 58 Cents Holdup and Gets 2 to 20 Years

St. Paul, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—For a confessed holdup from which he received 58 cents John Buda, 24 years old, was sentenced in district court today from two to 20 years in state penitentiary. Buda admitted he and two companions robbed Joseph Langenberger of $1.75 and divided the loot.

Baby Girl Drinks Eye Medicine and Succumbs

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Orme today mourned the death of their 15-month-old daughter who died late Sunday after she drank eye medicine. The child climbed to a cupboard, drank the medicine and fell in the first throes of her death sickness.

The Grand Trunk at Smith's Creek to board a moving train with his wares. A kindly baggage man helped him down and lifted Edison into his car by the ears. His ear drums were broken and he has been deaf since.

The station was moved to Dearborn last summer by Ford for preservation as a part of the collection of Edisonia.

Henry and Edsel Ford received the guests at the station and there followed an inspection of the village and of the group of Edison buildings brought to Dearborn from Menlo Park, N. J.

The 82-year-old inventor has been the guest since Saturday of Ford. His recent illness has kept him from much activity at the Ford estate.

The broadcasting tonight over the two national broadcasting systems will utilize the largest number of radio stations ever covered by one event. The program honoring Edison will be carried by 140 stations to the United States, Canada and Mexico, covering undoubtedly the largest audience ever assembled for any single event in the history of the world.

Tonight after Ford's banquet in honor of his friend, Edison will march up to the second story of his old laboratory which has been moved here from Menlo Park, and while the world listens by radio to a description of what he is doing, Edison will repeat the experiment of 50 years ago. By his side will be Henry Ford and Francis Jehl, who as a youth of 20 helped make the first light.

The president's speech follows.

Football Special Train Strikes Auto at Crossing and Kills Its Four Occupants

DEAD ARE A FARMER'S FAMILY AND HIRED MAN

HANS NELSON, MR. AND MRS.
CARL HANSON, JOHN PETER-SON, OF RIVER FALLS, WIS.

ON PILOT IS FOUND BODY OF A WHITE DOG WHICH HAD RID-DEN ON RUNNING BOARD

Hudson, Wis., Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Three hundred happy football fans—home-bound from Evanston where they had seen Minnesota defeat Northwestern—were plunged into despair near here when their special train the "Maroon" struck an automobile on a crossing and killed its four occupants.

Students, members of the Gopher band and others whose lips rang with cheers and songs of victory on that triumphant Sunday return over the Northwestern railway, poured out of the coaches and witnessed the wreckage.

The dead, all of River Falls, Wis., were:

Hans Nelson, 71 years old.
Carl Hanson, 50, and Mrs. Hanson, 49, Nelson's daughter and son-in-law.
John Peterson, 46, employed on the Nelson farm.

Death apparently came instantly to each. On the pilot of the locomotive when the train was brought to a grinding stop, was the body of a small white dog which had ridden on the running board of the automobile.

FORMALLY ALLOCATES BOULDER DAM POWER

Washington, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Secretary of Interior Wilbur today formally allocated Boulder Dam power, giving 50 per cent to the metropolitan water district of southern California, 25 per cent to Los Angeles and 25 per cent to the Southern California Edison and associated companies. The allotments were made subject to deductions which may be made later for Nevada, Arizona and certain cities whose applications have not yet been received.

MAY FILE MURDER CHARGES AGAINST COLORED MINISTER

Chicago, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Murder charges probably will be filed against the Rev. G. A. Long, pastor of the Mount Zion Negro Baptist church, Evanston, and two of his deacons if Samuel Sanders, another deacon, dies of razor wounds received during a riot staged Sunday.

When five squads of Evanston police had battered the milling antagonists into submission Sanders and two other deacons were found lying across the altar, the former with his throat slashed and the others with serious wounds.

Nineteen members of the congregation received knife and razor cuts or broken heads when the pews were torn from their fastenings and used as weapons during a meeting called to discuss election of a new pastor.

INTERNATIONAL DOPE RING IS LOCATED TODAY

FEDERAL OPERATIVES BELIEVE
THEY HAVE DISCOVERED
N. W. HEADQUARTERS

5 MEN AND WOMAN ARRESTED;
$25,000 WORTH OF NAR-
COTICS SEIZED

Minneapolis, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Northwest headquarters of what federal agents termed an international dope ring were believed broken up here today with the arrest of five men and one woman and the seizure of narcotics valued at $25,000.

Joe Katz, Russell M. Johnson, Paul Cain, Jake Sterns and Paul Keith, all of whom were said to have police records, were arrested by agents under the leadership of O. A. H. De La Guardia, northwest revenue chief, when investigations of several months were climaxed by raids on several scattered places in the Twin Cities.

De La Guardia's squad broke down the door of an apartment house to make the arrest of Cain and the unnamed woman and declared they uncovered a cache of cocaine and heroin under a bed. The woman, they said, attempted to "square things" with the offer of $110 in marked money.

DARING BANDIT ROBS THE PHALEN PARK STATE BANK

SCALES 8-FOOT PARTITION AND DROPS INTO THE LOCKED
CASHIER'S CAGE

SCOOPS UP $3,000, CLIMBS OVER
PETITION AND REJOINS
TWO COMPANIONS

St. Paul, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—While two companions guarded him from a possible attack, a daring youthful bandit scaled an eight-foot partition and dropped into the locked cashier's cage to rob the Phalen Park State Bank of $3,000 here today.

After he thrust the bundles of currency through a window of the cage, the youth calmly climbed back over the partition and stood brushing his clothing while the other robbers ordered Roy A. Erickson, assistant cashier, and Frank Schweitz, a clerk, to lie on the floor of the vault.

The three men then dashed from the building and nearby shopkeepers said they speed down the street in a motor car.

FALL TRIAL ENTERS STAGE OF ORATORY

ALL EVIDENCE COMPLETED IN CASE CHARGING HE AC-CEPTED BRIBE

SUMMATIONS OF GOVERNMENT AND DEFENSE TO OCCUPY
TWO DAYS

By HERBERT LITTLE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 21.—The trial of former Interior Secretary Albert B. Fall on a charge of receiving a $100,000 bribe from E. L. Doheny, entered the stage of oratory today, with all evidence completed.

All of today's session and part of tomorrow was scheduled to be given to summations of the government and defense. Justice William Hitz will then charge the jury to retire to consider a verdict.

The presentation of evidence, although more nearly complete than in the previous conspiracy trials of Fall, Doheny and Harry Sinclair, was accomplished in less time than in the others. Justice Hitz has hurried the trial by quick rulings on disputed points, and the lawyers on both sides have agreed without argument on many questions previously disputed.

This was the first oil trial in which both the Doheny and Sinclair transactions have been introduced. Evidence was introduced to show that Fall received money from both Doheny and Sinclair, both of whom got leases on naval oil reserves in 1921 and 1922.

Fall's sickness, although concealed from the jury as much as possible, is expected to weigh heavily in his favor. Defense lawyers also are counting upon Doheny's own testimony as to his 43-year-old friendship with Fall.

GOLDEN JUBILEE OF EDISON PUT ON RADIO TONIGHT

St. Paul, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Through the radio Minnesota will join the nation tonight in celebrating the golden jubilee to Thomas A. Edison's invention of the incandescent lamp.

Governor Theodore Christianson will pay tribute to Edison's great inventive genius in a radio address over station KSTP here at 6:30 p. m. At the same time new flood lights will be focused on the state capitol here in recognition of Edison's achievements.

Minnesota radio stations also will carry the speeches of President Hoover, Edison and Henry Ford as well as the complete program from the national celebration at Dearborn, Mich.

GREAT DORNIER FLYING BOAT IN TEST FLIGHT

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—The great Dornier flying boat DOX, largest heavier than air craft in the world, made a 52-minute flight today with 150 passengers and 19 members of the crew aboard. It circled steadily over Lake Constance and landed smoothly.

PANTAGES TO STAND IN HIS OWN DEFENSE

TO TELL HIS VERSION OF WHAT OCCURRED WHEN EUNICE
PRINGLE VISITED HIM

FOR 3 WEEKS MULTI-MILLION-AIRE THEATER MAN HAS HEARD OTHERS TESTIFY

Los Angeles, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Some time today or tomorrow Alexander Pantages will be called upon at his trial to tell his version of what occurred the day Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old dancer, claims she was lured to a consultation room and attacked.

For three weeks the multi-millionaire theater man has heard others describe how the 17-year-old dancer ran screaming from the room.

Pantages contends that Miss Pringle framed him because he had refused to book her act and that the alleged plot between her and Nicholas Dunaev, author of her act, was occasioned by the sale of his theaters for more than $20,000,000.

The case, which through the standing of the 54-year-old showman who started his climb to wealth in the Alaskan gold fields, has gained nationwide attention, probably will be given to the jury or six men and six women late this week.

Pantages was expected to testify that Miss Pringle followed him down to the mezzanine floor, begged for an interview and, when they went into the consultation room, tore her clothes and his.

He probably will conclude the defense case.

CROSBY LEVY SET AT $81,000

$10,000 IS ALLOTTED FOR STREET,
ROADS; $34,000 FOR BOND
PAYMENT

Crosby, Oct. 21.—The village council has set the annual tax levy of $81,000 as follows: payment on bonds and interest, $34,000; paving certificates, $500; library, $1,500; musical entertainment, $500; poor, $1,500; street and roads, $10,000; park and cemetery, $1,500; general corporate, $30,000; payment to E. H. Pribyl judgment, $400, and payment for judgment to James Maguire, $1,600.

The village council purchased a reversible blade snow plow equipped with a 10-foot four-inch blade. At the same meeting the council voted to build and maintain a skating rink in Lake Park addition this winter.

NEGRESS ORDERED TO TRIAL THURSDAY

Minneapolis, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Effie Carter, negress, accused by two Des Moines, Ia., girls with having kept them prisoner for three days in a Chinatown hotel here under conditions amounting to white slavery, was arraigned today on a technical charge, pleaded not guilty and was ordered to stand trial Thursday.

The two unnamed girls, 24 and 25 years old, charged they were lured into the hotel, made prisoners by Mrs. Carter and forced to entertain Chinese.

A purity squad rescued the girls who since have been held as material witnesses against Mrs. Carter who was charged with keeping a house of bad character.

MAN AND SIX CHILDREN KILLED BY GAS IN HOME

New York, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—A man and six motherless children whom he had reared in a three room apartment were killed by gas when a pot of water boiled over, extinguishing the flame on the gas stove.

Walter Cavanagh and the children might have been saved had any of them been able to open the door when a neighbor knocked to summon the head of the family to the telephone. There were indications that Ethel, 17, had struggled out of bed and staggered toward the door only to collapse from the fumes before she could put her hand on the knob.

SEIZED WITH HEART ATTACK AT HIS HOME

KEPT ALIVE DURING NIGHT BY MINISTRATIONS OF OXYGEN

BATTLES THROUGH FIRST AT-TACK, SHOWS SIGNS OF PAIN

By RALPH HEINZEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Oct. 21. — At the break of dawn today, George Clemenceau, war premier and "Grand Old Tiger" of France, was lying within the shadow of death.

Seized with a heart attack at his flat at 8 Rue Franklin last night, the Tiger was kept alive through the night and the early hours of morning by continuous injections of oxygen.

Following five injections administered within two hours by a family physician, Clemenceau battled through the first stage of the attack. But he continued to struggle for breath and show signs of pain.

Dr. Charles Lauby, noted heart specialist who attended Marshal Ferdinand Foch in the latter's last hours, was then summoned. The specialist found the former premier on the verge of death. Further oxygen injections followed after which the aged statesman seemed to breathe more easily.

With an expression of grim defiance so characteristic of him, he raised his eyes to the doctor and whispered: "The time hasn't come yet."

Then turning his head toward his daughter, grandson and several others who had assembled around his bedside, he added, with a feeble smile: "You can all go to bed now."

An hour later the fighting spirit of the Tiger would tolerate no opposition. He insisted upon washing his hands and face and being allowed to sit up in his favorite lounge chair.

"I'm not going to be treated like a baby," he muttered with a scowl.

Battling as never before, Clemenceau showed signs of being able to conquer the heart attack which was complicated later in the morning by a slight pulmonary congestion. After being transferred to a chair he was forbidden to return to his bed particularly inasmuch as he seemed unable to lie flat on his back without choking.

Dr. Lauby gave a United Press correspondent the following analysis of the Tiger's condition:

"It is a heart attack and therefore most critical. M. Clemenceau was warned several times this summer to slacken his work of writing his memoirs but he characteristically refused. It is impossible to predict the outcome but he is momentarily resting easier following injections of oxygen, but he is 88 years old, and his heart cannot be expected to stand such a strain very long."

Dr. Lauby said that if it had not been for the oxygen injections, Clemenceau would have died.

Clemenceau celebrated his 88th birthday on Sept. 28 and was said to have told a friend at that time that he expected to die within a year.

Recalling that his mother and father both died before they reached 90, he was quoted as saying: "I am in the danger zone. I do not ask for death, neither do I fear it. I wait. I shall die this year."

At Vendee to the Sea, an open grave was designated by Clemenceau years ago. He frequently visited the spot, and standing at the edge of the grave he would order some peasants to rearrange its sides and "When I lie there it will be soft," the old statesman was accustomed to tell the workmen.

The grave was dug near that of his father. At the foot of his father's tomb and his own open grave, Clemenceau had a marble monument erected.

CELEBRATE THEIR FIFTIETH WEDDED YEAR; WIFE DIES

Racine, Wis., Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Fifty years ago today Edward and Mary Seiger were married.

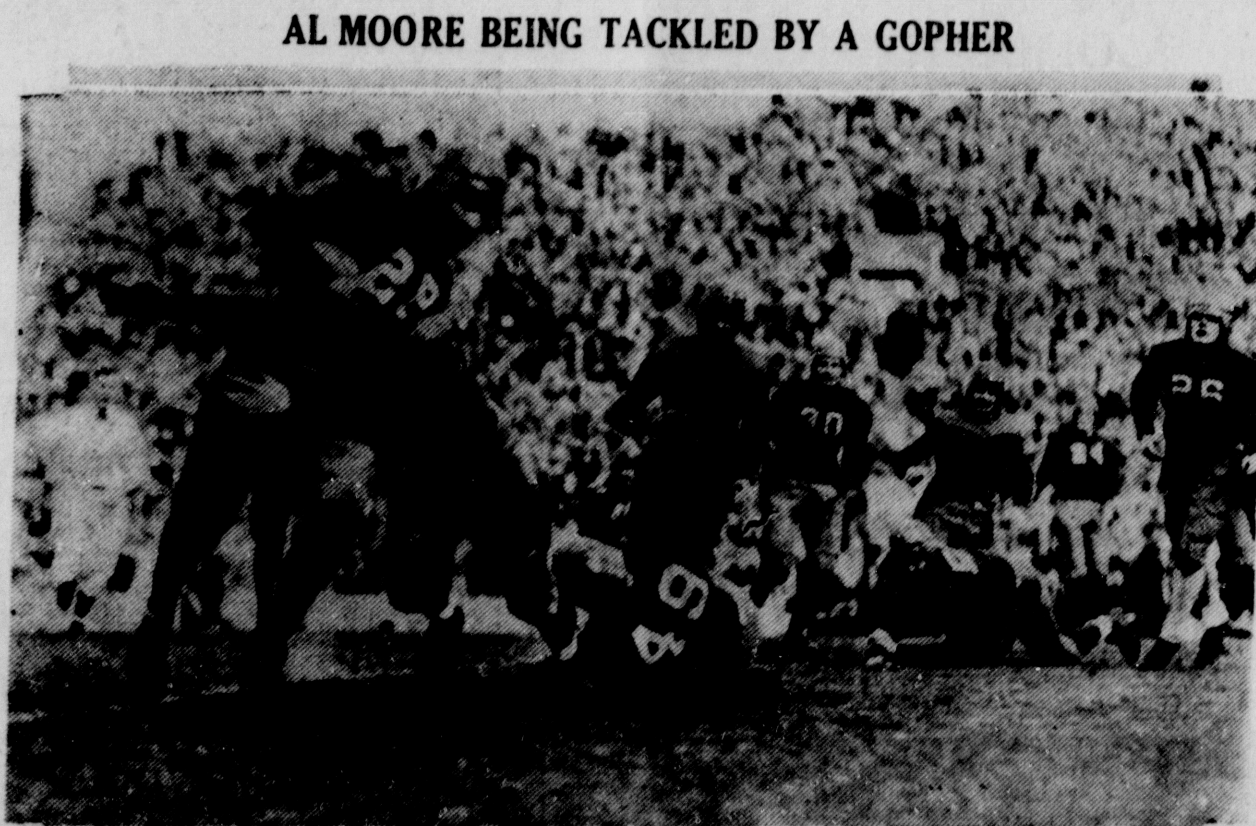

In observance of the anniversary, their marriage ceremony was re-enacted in St. Edwards church today. The aged couple stood in front of the altar, happy, their right hands clasped, repeating the words after the Rev. J. W. Boot.

As the Rev. Boot read the last sentence, Mrs. Seiger fell dead of heart disease.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday at the same church.

Train to Show Herd Care on Tour

PRACTICAL methods of herd management and dairy products marketing will be demonstrated and disease prevention and control and breeding, culling and feeding emphasized in a special dairy and poultry train of 10 cars, which will begin a two weeks tour and exhibition of 35 Minnesota and northwestern Wisconsin towns today.

Cows and hens, aristocrats of the barn yard, will be contrasted with ill-bred and puny dairy and poultry specimens in poultry and dairy displays and exhibits that will be carried on the train.

On the train will be F. W. Peck, Minnesota director of extension service; H. R. Searles and W. A. Billings of the extension service; Axel Hansen of the Minnesota Livestock Association, and A. J. Dexter, agricultural agent of the Northern Pacific Railway, one of the sponsors of the tour. They will deliver short talks at each of the towns and will supervise demonstrations.

Co-operating with the railroad in the programs and exhibits will be the Minnesota Agricultural Extension Service, the Poultry Research Society of America, the Minnesota Livestock Breeders' Association, Land O' Lakes Creameries, Inc., national livestock breeding associations and farm papers. The Wisconsin Agricultural Extension Service will co-operate at four stops scheduled in that state.

The train will be run over the lines of the Northern Pacific Railroad and its subsidiary, the Minnesota & International, and will make three-hour stops in a large number of towns listed.

The train will be at Brainerd on Friday, October 25, arriving at 9:30 a. m. and making a three hour stop for demonstrations and talks.

Odd View of Brainerd's Long Sought Armory

1213 7th St. S. E.
Minneapolis
October 17, 1929The Editor
Brainerd Daily Dispatch
Brainerd, Minn.

Dear Sir:

With all due respect to those individuals who creditably sacrifice their time and energy to foster civic enterprises for public utility, may I present the following ideas which it seems to me ought to be fully thought out when an undertaking like that of securing an armory is brought before the public.

1. The columns of the Brainerd Daily Dispatch infer that the city of Brainerd is wholeheartedly in favor of having an armory in its midst. Is this assumption a correct one? Is it not possible that the zeal to increase the public facilities of a thriving city may have caused the present boosters to endorse a new project without seriously investigating the underlying issues?

2. Is there not a contradiction between headlining the building of armories one day and the good-will visit of Prime Minister MacDonald the next? On October 11, Mr. MacDonald, speaking to America, Europe and the world, quoted M. Briand as saying, "Moral disarmament must precede physical disarmament." Is Brainerd actively doing its part in creating a basis for "moral disarmament" by securing and fostering an armory? It is true, the nations are as yet some distance from an appreciable decrease in armament, but they will approach their objectives only when throughout the nations communities like Brainerd build up among themselves and their youth convictions which will make their actions conform to and not belie the popular trend toward world peace.

3. Granted that the city of Brainerd is in need of a building which would house meetings and conventions, is an armory the type of building to meet that demand? To what extent do communities like Aitkin and Crosby-Ironton actually benefit by having armories? Would not the new high school auditorium and gymnasium, and the new theatre supply present needs to a great extent?

4. Why add an armory to the list of non-tax-paying buildings, when according to present figures the new high school will not be able to suitably accommodate a junior-senior-high school system, making the erecting of a junior-high school within a few years almost a necessity? Furthermore, a new Y. M. C. A. building is equally a problem of Brainerd's future. An armory can never do the work of or supplant a Y. M. C. A. True again, the armory will be donated by the state—comparatively. But no sincere group will impair or deny ulterior issues because the present offers merely an easier and more inexpensive approach to the problem. It is assumed that Brainerd's civically-minded citizens belong to such a group.

Respectfully yours,

ALBERT R. RATHERT.

Note—The writer of the above is the son of Rev. F. C. Rathert and is a student at the University of Minnesota.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

TELEPHONE BILLS

New Plan of Rendering Them Now in Effect at the Local Exchange

The new plan of rendering telephone bills is now in effect, it is announced by Henry D. Hoffmann, manager of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Brainerd telephone subscribers will receive their first bill under the new plan about five days after November 4, which is the new billing date. Thereafter, bills will be dated the fourth of each month.

"By means of the new billing plan more satisfactory billing and business we will be able to give our customers office service," said Mr. Hoffmann. "It will permit the inclusion of all charges and credits up to the date of the bill, which was not possible under the old plan because of the issuing of all bills at the first of the month."

Customers are urged to read the notice which accompanies their first bill and particularly note their new discount date which expires November 19 and thereafter will be on the 19th of each month.

This new method of rendering telephone bills, although new to this territory, is being used by other Bell Telephone Companies in other parts of the United States, and is being placed in practice in all exchanges of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company in Minnesota.

"Customers should call our business office if any further explanation of the new billing plan is desired, said Mr. Hoffmann."

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO MEET

Association to Convene at Duluth on October 22, 23 and 24

On October 22, 23 and 24, the seventy-first annual State Sunday School association will meet at Duluth, with the First Methodist church as convention headquarters church. G. N. Grant of the city will be a delegate from the First M. E. church of Brainerd.

One special and interesting feature of the convention will be classes in Fine Arts conducted by Mrs. Walter Hutton of Des Moines, Ia., who will show how pictures and music may be used in religious education.

A banquet will be held for county officers Tuesday evening, and one for Children's division workers on Thursday evening. The Duluth council of churches is sponsoring the convention with W. L. Smithies as executive secretary. The program of the convention is under the general direction of H. L. Stright, general secretary of the Minnesota council of religious education, with headquarters in St. Paul.

Episcopal Guild Supper

St. Paul Episcopal guild will serve a supper in the church basement Thursday, October 24, from 5:30 until 8 o'clock. It is hoped all friends will attend.

FIVE SHOOT AFTER SUNDOWN, FINED

Deputy Game Warden Brings Charges Against Duck Hunters at Lake Molly

For shooting at ducks after sundown, five hunters at Molly Lake over the week end, were fined $10 and costs in municipal court this morning on pleas of guilty.

Charges were brought by Deputy Game Warden A. P. Cardle who was present when the shooting occurred. He accused the hunters of shooting after 6 o'clock, the time of sundown Sunday being at 5:19 p. m.

Those arraigned before Judge J. H. Warner were R. H. Baker, Alfred Nubbe, Miles Schubert, Harold Olson and George Roth. Another hunter, a juvenile, will be taken before Judge L. B. Kinder.

Are you interested in training yourself in the fundamentals of Boy Scout leadership? Training courses are now being conducted in Staples Monday afternoons in Wadena at the Congregational church Monday evenings at 7:30 P. M. and at Park Rapids Tuesday evening at the school house. If you are interested in training and your district does not have a course as yet, please write in to the Scout office signifying your interest and we will endeavor to arrange something for you. It is our desire to train every Scout leader but a training course without a sufficient attendance is always a failure. The executive staff would appreciate an expression of interest on the part of the Scout leaders in this training.

Courts of Honor

Brainerd Court of Honor will be held at the Congregational church Friday evening Nov. 1 at 7:30 P. M. Everyone is invited to be present. Brainerd Board of Review takes place Saturday, October 26 at 9 A. M. at court house.

Wadena Court of Honor will take place at the Congregational church 2:30 P. M. Sunday, Oct. 27.

Range district Court of Honor will be October 25, Friday evening, 7:30 P. M. at the school house. Range troops from Cuyuna, Deerwood, Crosby-Ironton, ton, Riverton are expected to participate.

Crosby troop 22 has the distinction of having their Scoutmaster in attendance at the Region Ten Scouters convention.

Cuyuna now has a new Scoutmaster in Elmer Salmi. We know that the troop will flourish under his leadership.

Troop No. 2 of Crosby now has for its Scoutmaster, Arnold Gustafson who will take Elmer Anderson's place who has carried on the work for the past year. We look for real growth from this troop.

Riverton troop is now under way with Mr. Brekke as scoutmaster. Mr. Brekke has completed a course of scout training under the Gamehaven council and is well equipped to take over the troop.

Dr. Ringley has agreed to take over the Ironton troop 29 which has been so splendidly handled by Mr. Mayberry. Mr. Mayberry has handled two troops in the past and has done splendidly with them. Mr. Ringley will be assisted by Assistant Scoutmaster and Eagle Scout Clifton Bloom.

Ironton troop 23 under F. G. Mayberry is growing in membership and promises to make a real showing this year.

Deerwood troop 24 has lost its scoutmaster, Lorenze Johnson was called to a new parish and as a result the troop committee of Deerwood is casting about for a successor to carry on the work.

Several of the Brainerd troops have taken advantage of the Saturday periods from 5 until 10 to use the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium for purposes of basketball. The scouts have a ball there and if your leader is with you your troop can have a period at the Y.

Send them in now. All troops should have a report in for October. If possible it should cover all activities for the troop since last June, unless you sent reports in all summer. A troop that plays the game of new Scouts regular meetings, troop budgets, hikes and monthly reports, get somewhere. Is your troop one of these?

Your Troop Reporter
Each troop can well serve themselves and Scouting by having a reporter to keep us posted on real live troop news. Send it in to reach the field executives office, court house Brainerd by Saturday of each week. Can we count on your cooperation?

Hallowe'en

Is your troop planning a Hallowe'en party? Thanksgiving good turn? A troop hike? Are they working on projects of any kind? Are you advancing? Are you recruiting new scouts. Lets play the game for all it is worth.

PHARMER GAINS INDIVIDUAL SCORING HONORS OF BIG 10

BRAINERD GETS REGIONAL TOURNAMENT IN 1931

GETS 20 POINTS IN HIS FIRST CONFERENCE GAME

REPLACES YUNEVICH, PURDUE, WHO ROLLED UP 18 POINTS

MINNESOTANS NOW POINTING TO IOWA, MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN GAMES

Chicago, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Individual scoring honors in the Big Ten football up to date go to Art Pharmer, the Minnesota halfback, who in his first conference game scored two touchdowns, kicked two field goals and was responsible for two points after touchdown for a total of 20 points.

Pharmer replaced Alex Yunevich, the Purdue sophomore who rolled up 18 points in his first game but was idle Saturday.

The seven scoring leaders:

	Td	Fg	Pat	Tp
Pharmer, Minnesota	2	2	2	20
Yunevich, Purdue	3	0	0	18

Minneapolis, Oct. 21.—Recognized again as a strong contender for the Big Ten championship, Dr. Clarence W. Spears and his "Thundering Herd" returned today from their triumph at Northwestern for two weeks of intensive drill toward the next conference game against Indiana.

The Doctor was expected to lay but scant stress on the "breather" game with Ripon college in Memorial Stadium Saturday. Neither is the reportedly weak Indiana team expected to seriously test the Gophers' strength but the Gophers will take no chances and will go "out there" to win.

Three successive conference games with Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin follow in order after the Indiana game and it is toward these tilts that the Gophers undoubtedly will be pointed. No serious injuries from the 26 to 14 victory over the Wildcats were reported today and followers of the Gophers predicted their strength will increase with the season's advance. Art Pharmer, Minnesota's place-kicking fullback, who scored 20 points against Northwestern, apparently had fully recovered from the rheumatism which troubled him during the early season.

The problem of where Bronko Nagurski, the Fulvizing Pole, should or will play remained, however, even after his great showing at fullback against Northwestern. He is expected to return to tackle against Ripon and then drop back to fullback for at least part of the remaining conference games.

The remainder of the Minnesota

UNDEFEATED AND UNTIED CLASS IN FOOTBALL NARROWS

New York, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Undefeated and untied class of eastern football eleven narrowed down to a field of six as a result of Saturday's games.

Teams yet to defeat or suffer a tie are Dartmouth, Cornell, Fordham, Pitt, Williams and Davis Elkins.

Teams beaten or tied on Saturday which had been free from such blots are Army, Harvard, Carnegie Tech, Columbia, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Penn, Penn State, and W. and J.

the best performers in the early season games, will remain probably in its present form throughout the season, Dr. Spears indicated.

LEADING JEWISH BOXERS IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN SHOW

New York, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Fifty rounds of boxing for Palestine relief are offered at Madison Square Garden tonight. The card includes several of the leading Jewish boxers of the moment. A capacity house will mean $100,000 for the sufferers at Palestine.

The card:
Al Singer, New York, vs. Davey Abad, Panama; 10 rounds.
Jack Berg, England, vs. Bruce Flowers, New York, 10 rounds.
Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, vs. Joe Sakya, Dayton; 10 rounds.
Yale Okun, New York, vs. Matt Adgie, Philadelphia, 10 rounds.
Ruby Goldstein, New York, vs. Joe Reno, Trenton; 10 rounds.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—A superior court jury here today found the seven union organizers charged with the second degree murder of Chief of Police O. F. Adersholt of Gastonia in a strike riot, guilty. The jury had been out but one hour.

MINNESOTA AND PURDUE SHOW ABILITY IN PLAY

AT PRESENT OHIO STATE LEADS THE CONFERENCE GROUP

CHICAGO, MINNESOTA AND PURDUE HAVE PERFECT RECORDS

By BERT DEMBY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Oct. 21.—Around Minnesota and Purdue, the former an admitted title contender at the start of the season and the latter a "dark horse," the majority of Big Ten interest centered today, as all conference teams began practice for next Saturday's games. The favoritism toward the Gophers and Boilermakers was the result of the ability exhibited by both these teams in games up to date. Each has shown enough real football to create the impression that it will be hard to beat.

At present Ohio State is leading the conference as the result of two victories scored over Iowa and Michigan, and no losses. Three other teams—Chicago, Minnesota and Purdue—have perfect records but each of these has won only one game. Illinois has neither victory nor defeat charged against it but the Illini record is marred by a 7-7 tie played with Iowa last Saturday, and that after Iowa had lost to Ohio.

One of the teams with a perfect record is almost certain to receive a blemish next Saturday when Purdue meets Chicago. The Boilermakers with their 30-16 victory over Michigan, will come here confident of victory. They appear to have the better team and incidentally as good a backfield as most coaches hope for, M. Harmon, Welch and Yunevich.

The other conference games Saturday find Indiana playing Ohio State; Iowa meeting Wisconsin, and Michigan hooking up with Illinois.

Ohio, with its unblemished record, must be rated favorite over the Indians. The Iowa-Wisconsin game appears to be one of those affairs where it is impossible to figure either team before the game. The Hawkeyes proved they have a good team when they held Illinois to a 7-7 tie last Saturday. The Badgers probably are better than they showed in the two defeats which they received from Northwestern and Notre Dame. Against the Irish Saturday, the Wisconsin line looked to be anything but good. However, Coach Glen Thistlethwaite has some good backfield men and if he can strengthen his line his team may yet cause trouble in the Big Ten.

Illinois, conference champion for the past two years, on paper appears to be as good as during the past two seasons, and must be rated favorite over Michigan. The Illini saw a break in luck go against them last Saturday when the place kick after touchdown which allowed Iowa to tie the score struck the crossbar and then bounded over to the point scoring side.

The other conference teams play non-conference opponents next Saturday. Minnesota meets Ripon and Wabasha plays Northwestern.

AL MARSTERS IS HIGH SCORER IN EASTERN FOOTBALL

New York, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Al Marsters, Dartmouth's fleet backfield star, has a total of 90 points and has retained high scoring honors of eastern football, according to a United Press tabulation, including all games played to date. Dowler of Colgate has 48 points and is in second place. Davidowitz of Lehigh ranks third with 44 points.

SAYS HIS LIQUOR WAS LINIMENT TO RUB ON HORSES' LEGS

St. Paul, Oct. 21.—(U.P.)—Arrested on his farm near Little Falls when federal prohibition agents uncovered 100 gallons of recently distilled alleged "moonshine," Jacob Suepurek uncovered a brand new explanation when he said the liquor was "liniment, to rub on the horses' legs during the long cold winter months." He was jailed, none-the-less, charged with possession of an illicit still.

Suepurek's arrest was but one of nine made by the agents in a series of week-end raids.

THIS YEAR'S FINAL TOURNEY GOES TO ST. CLOUD

REGIONAL COMMITTEE OF 4TH STATE HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC DISTRICT MEETS AT ST. CLOUD

LOCATION OF REGIONAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT TO ROTATE ANNUALLY

The regional committee of the Fourth State High School Athletic District met at the State Teachers' College in St. Cloud on Friday morning and completed arrangements for the regional basketball tournament to be held this year. The committee consisted of Superintendents Andrews of Buffalo, Peterson of Montevideo, Falk of Sauk Center and W. C. Cobb of Brainerd.

All of the cities represented except Buffalo desired the regional tournament to be held in their home city. As a final compromise St. Cloud was chosen as the regional center for the current year and the date for the tournament was fixed as March 14 and 15.

The committee also voted to recommend that the regional policy hereafter shall be to rotate the location for regional tournament and recommended Brainerd be chosen for 1931. While this is not necessarily a final arrangement, it is highly probable that the committee's recommendation will be followed.

"Married Life" Not Worth While

Blames Wives' "Nerves"

"Weak nerves," said a New York doctor recently, "in my estimation wreck more happily married lives than any other cause."

Besides making the sweetest disposition sour and irritable, nervousness is a terrible drain on your vital forces—it saps your youth and your strength and dulls your beauty. What a difference from the bright-eyed, vibrant girl he married. No wonder married life seems unbearable!

But you can get rid of your nervousness—speedily too—and become the steady-nerved, radiant woman you once were. Try the effect of Tanlac after meals and before going to bed, and if it doesn't seem make a new woman of you—doesn't rid you of that tired, strained feeling—go back and get your money.

Go to your druggist now and get a bottle of Tanlac. Millions of folks have started back on the road to youth, health and happiness with this world famous tonic and there is no reason why you, too, can't begin today to rebuild your worn-out tissues and revitalize your entire system.

Blue Blood And Red

CHAPTER XLVII

HER dark eyes as she looked at him were filled with distressed apology.

"My God, Eddie—you'd think I was the smallpox or something! Honest, I'm not as awful as you seem to think I am. I'm just a girl trying to get along and find a little happiness for myself and you, too. I don't want to take anything away from you, Eddie—I want to bring something to you."

His head fell wearily on his propped up palm.

"I know—I know. You mean fine—only, we got different ideas. Look here, I don't want to be impolite to you, Bernice—but I do wish you would run along home this afternoon. I—I got work to do."

She with strange meekness did not resent this dismissal; in minor matters she seemed to obey him with a childlike willingness. In leaving she saw he did not want to kiss her goodbye and she made no attempt to thrust a caress upon him.

Alone, he realized that he had to fight off a violent depression and he went back to the timber, where his axe resounded with almost superhuman fierceness through the woods. As an escape from the sunken state of his heart, nothing could equal the narcotic effect of tremendous physical exertion. Despite the downward pull of his mind, the muscular effort sent his heart pumping with a steady rhythm that forced rich currents of blood through his veins. Slowly a flush came to his neck and his face grew wet. Presently his shirt sopped against his perspiring body and his lungs pumped and exhaled the deep, balmy air of the medicinal out-of-doors.

He had never read anything by Oscar Wilde and had no knowledge of the English poet's philosophy that only the body can cure the mind and only the mind can cure the body. But the net result of his prolonged labor was that he returned to the house, aching in his muscles from a frenzy of toil.

Even as his body was tired, so was his brain from over much thinking. Contrary to his expectations, sleep came to him as soon as his head touched the pillow and a new day found him again fighting for peace—throwing himself like a charging warrior into the task of felling the forest. When might came he was again as ready for slumber as a spent animal.

Tobe had placed a letter from New York beside his plate and, with reluctant fingers, Eddie opened it. It was from Mike Arno.

"Dear Pal Eddie," Arno had written. "I pulled off that business transaction I spoke to you about in Richmond and it was very satisfactory. Nothing doing here in the big town right now and it occurs to me that it might be a good idea if I ran down and paid you a little visit. I have been working pretty hard to put that deal over and it wouldn't do me a bit of harm to get out in the sticks and rest up for a while. In fact I want to drop out of sight for a couple of weeks for certain private reasons of my own and I think your place down there would be a great hideaway. You can look for me in a day or two. I'll come on, so you needn't bother trying to meet me as I will hire a car at the station and drive out. Maybe you've changed your mind and might listen to a proposition to hook up with me in the future. We'll talk it over when I see you. Always your pal Mike Arno."

Eddie, as he put down the letter, noticed that it had trembled between his fingers. This was a new with piercing pain. There was no escape! His past, fraught with lingering menace, pursued him with the malignancy that was beyond his power to combat.

Mike Arno—a crook—a confidence man—

The food on his plate remained untouched. It was no good telling himself that Mike Arno was a square guy—as squareness was rated among people of Arno's stripe. Yes, Mike was all right, in his way. Eddie even liked the tall, suave fellow who was perfectly honest about everything except money. Despite his bad record Arno had a charm, an expansive personality that was really attractive. But here—with the love of Marian Thorndike at stake—Eddie was filled up, suddenly, with a bitterness against Arno that amounted almost to hatred.

"As if I didn't have trouble enough already!" he groaned.

It was no use protesting—defeat was all around him. Whichever way he turned, he ran into the same stone wall. Even if the countryside did not already know about Bernice Veressi, it soon would. Mike Arno might fool them, and pass for a gentleman—but Eddie himself would know. He would be carrying around an inner consciousness that he was secretly consorting with a man whose friendship would damn him in the eyes of everybody if it were known. The knowledge would work on him in secret darkness and would be as a poison to his conscience.

"There's no way out," he decided aloud. "I'll have to clear out myself and get away—it's the only escape!"

Very slowly, then, the idea of flight began to seep through Eddie's consciousness. The more he thought of it, the plainer it became that it was the only method of freeing himself from revelations that would end forever the cherished hope of his heart.

Common sense told him that Bernice's continued presence in the community would wreck every chance he had with Marian Thorndike. And there was no hope of persuading the girl to go back to New York. Indeed it was too late now; no doubt the whole county was already abuzz with the news of her presence and had already linked their names together.

With Mike Arno on the place there would be an undermining of morals, subtle and dangerous. Flight was a coward's weapon—but what else was there?

As accurately as his fevered mind was capable, Eddie weighed the chances of disappearing. For one thing, the scandal would be checked where it was—at least there would be no new destructive developments. As soon as he was gone, he was certain Bernice Veressi would go back to New York. He would escape the visit of Mike Arno. Marian Thorndike, if she thought of him at all, would at least recognize that he had pride enough not to make a shameful parade of himself virtually before her eyes.

The thought of putting hundreds of miles between himself and her dear presence was a sharp anguish. It was like an amputation without ether.

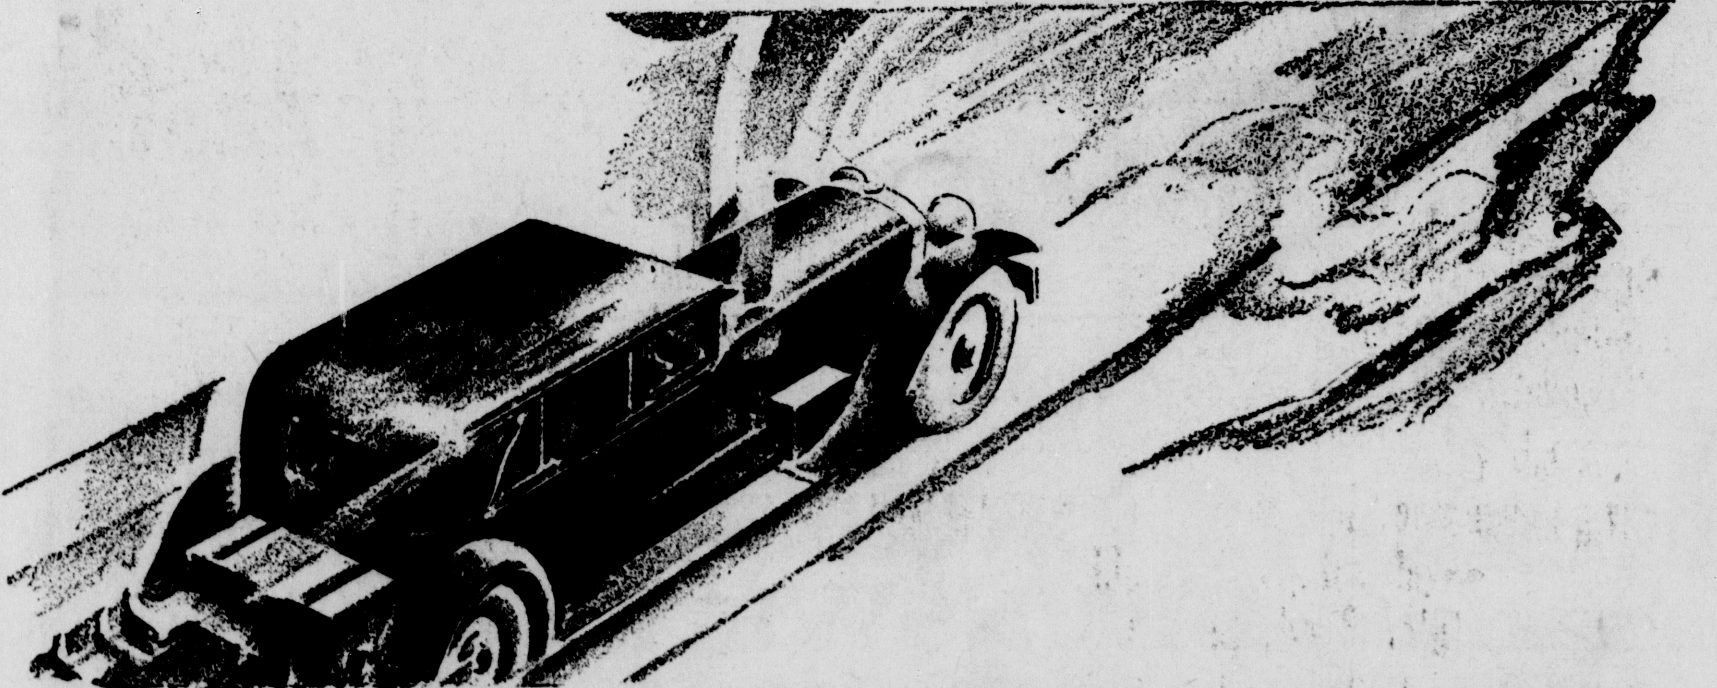

When he was gone, what hope could he hold for the future? Would she think of him as only a blighter and a boulder who had once temporarily crossed her path? Would she remember him at all?

LARGE AUDIENCE GREET SINGER

Suzanne Kenyon Adorable in Her Singing, Wears Beautiful Costumes

ACCOMPANIST PRAISED

President Mrs. E. J. Quinn Congratulates Club Upon Its Large Membership

(Contributed)

A large, expectant audience greeted the first Musical club artist of the season Suzanne Kenyon on Sunday afternoon at Elks' Temple. To be exact, they greeted artists, for the accompanist, Miss Delphie Lindstrom, is certainly an artist in her line, and a great favorite in Brainerd.

Owing to the non-arrival of a trunk containing Miss Kenyon's Russian and Chinese costumes, French and Spanish groups were substituted for the Chinese and Russian, and she opened the program with Songs of Old Italy. Her first number, Caro, son tua così, by Orlandini, was a very ancient love song. "Stizzoso, mio stizzoso, by Pergolisi, represented a "Naughty Marietta" of the 16th century, arranging for a clandestine meeting with her lover. But the sweetest one of this group was the lullaby, Fa la nana bambin, by Gene Sadero. In this, Miss Kenyon personified to perfection a little Italian mother singing her "bambino" to sleep. The last number, however, In mezzo al mar, by the same composer brought out the full, bird-like tones of her voice to much better advantage.

In the French group, she was dressed in a court costume of the time of Marie Antoinette, with a polonaise, puffed on the hips and a powdered wig. This group opened with an aria from an old French opera "Deux Morceaux Du Role d'Antigone," by Sachin, who was the musician to the French court in 1787. Then followed two old love songs, by Wecherlin and Pierre Vallet, and this group closed with a patriotic song representing a company of soldiers singing as they marched, with the procession gradually increasing in volume, and the recession gradually decreasing. The accompaniment added very much to the effectiveness of this number. The encore for this group was "Paris est au Roi," by Weckerlin.

A gorgeous brocade gown, cut de-collete, surmounted by a black lace mantilla, transformed the petite French court lady into a Spanish belle. This group opened, appropriately, with a Madrigal, or pastoral lovesong by Julian Huarte. But, as the artist herself said, she was playing a part when singing French and Spanish lovesongs and arias, but in her last group, she was just herself.

This closing group consisted of Songs of the Old South, and she sang the negro spirituals just as she had heard her old black Tennessee mammy sing them. These were "Sing a Ho Dat I had de Wings of a Dove" and "Steal Away." This group opened with "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginny," by Bland, and closed with "You Cant Get Yo' Lodgin Here," by Morris. This song had the double character of lullaby and covert warning to a slave husband who had been sold to another plantation but returned, nightly, to visit his family.

Miss Kenyon was adorable in hoop-skirt of white ruffled muslin, trimmed with pink roses, with a poke bonnet, with roses to match and strings of narrow black velvet left untied, thus forming a trimming for her dress. The bonnet strings also edged the beautiful black lace wrap that she wore with this costume. Long black silk gloves completed the costume of the Belle of slavery days.

The encore for this group was "How de do, Miss Springtime," by Ginon.

Before the program the president, Mrs. E. J. Quinn congratulated the club upon its large membership and the splendid attractions booked for the year and brought greetings from the executive board to the members—especially the out-of-town members.

ST. PAUL GIRL BRIDE OF BRAINERD MAN

Miss Margaret M. Reardon and Walter James Cullen Married at St. Paul

(From St. Paul Pioneer Press of Sunday)

One of the loveliest of the late fall weddings was solemnized at 8 A. M. Saturday at St. Luke's Catholic church when Miss Margaret Mary Reardon, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Reardon, 978 Selby avenue, became the bride of Walter James Cullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Cullen of Brainerd, Minn.

Cybotium ferns and white chrysanthemums adorned the church when Monsignor James C. Byrne, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large company of friends. Prof. Leopold Bruenner played the bridal music.

Mrs. Harry F. Carlson was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Clarence Sheffo of Brainerd, a fraternity brother in Phi Sigma Kappa, was Mr. Cullen's best man. The ushers were Fred and Francis Reardon, brothers of the bride.

The bride, who was given in marriage by another brother, Harry Reardon, was attractive in a Patou model gown of eggshell satin made princess style and elaborated with seed pearls. The veil of tulle was worn over a semi-long train on the gown and was held in place with clusters of fine seed pearls. Her bouquet was a shower of white orchids lilies of the valley and orchids.

Mrs. Carlson's gown was a Vionnet model of orchid satin, made princess style. Her hat was of orchid velvet and she carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

Following the ceremony there was a bridal breakfast at the Commodore hotel for members of the families. The table was set in horseshoe shape and decorated with pink roses and pink tapers in crystal and silver candlesticks.

Mrs. Reardon, the bride's mother, wore a gown of black velvet with a black velvet hat and wore a corsage bouquet of rose buds.

After a trip in the west, Mr. and Mrs. Cullen will go to Dallas, Texas, where they will live.

For travel the bride is wearing a two-piece suit of royal blue knitted material with an eggshell satin blouse and shoes and hat to match the blue suit which is made with a collar of marten fur.

GETS DRUNK ON WOOD ALCOHOL

Ex-Army Lieutenant Drinks Half a Pint of Poison at His Own Little Party

Suffered Little Ill Effects From Wood Alcohol He Gouged at Drug Store

Fred Johnson, erstwhile a lieutenant in the U. S. army serving with the first division in the world war, cares little whether the country is wet or dry as long as the government does not prevent the sale of wood alcohol.

Johnson who says that his home is at Winona, Minn., decided he wanted a good stiff drink Saturday. He went to a drug store at Motley and bought a pint of wood alcohol. He came to Brainerd, registered at an hotel and proceeded to have his own little party. He drank half the contents and was arrested when a woman in an adjoining room complained he was making too much noise.

Despite the quantity of wood alcohol which the man drank he suffered little ill effects from the poison. Half the quantity drunk would have proved fatal to the average man, a Brainerd doctor said today.

Johnson pleaded guilty to intoxication and was fined $10 and costs. He left the city immediately after his release from municipal court this morning.

Vicinity Interested Tonight and Tomorrow

Sergeants Chester G. Wise and Herman Hoffman of the Regular Army Recruiting Service, headquarters at Minneapolis, will remain in Brainerd at headquarters at the post office tonight and tomorrow for the purpose of interviewing young men of this vicinity desirous of enlisting in the army.

Sergeant Wise made the following announcement today:
"Financial independence in old age is a goal much sought after but seldom reached. Too often when old age has overtaken us, we find that the earnings of our youth have been spent and that our days of usefulness are a matter of history. To the young man who thinks seriously of the future, the army offers an opportunity, equalled by few occupations—surpassed by none, for the realization of his dreams. Opportunity to see strange lands, to know the peoples of other races in their native environs, to learn from actual experiences the thrill of adventure, to know that honest labor will be crowned by promotion, to follow one of the oldest and most noble professions of mankind, and at the end of thirty years well spent while still in the prime of life, to retire on a lifetime income equal to the income from twenty to forty thousand dollars well invested. Any man desiring more information can write to U. S. Army Recruiting Office, 108 Federal Building, Minneapolis, Minn."

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORY OF TODAY

Regardless of any opposition to the movement, George Irwin, manager of the Lyceum theatre announced today that he was prepared to give away a real live baby free at the show Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock.

The baby will be an eugenic offspring. Complete adoption papers will be furnished its new parent, said Mr. Irwin.
In case the winner does not accept the prize offering it will be kept with some reliable family until such time as arrangements can be made for its keep, he said.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank friends and neighbors for all kindness and sympathy during our sad bereavement of the death of our daughter Lucille, also for the beautiful flowers from dear friends, neighbors, Yeomen Lodge No. 602, Presbyterian ladies aid, high school faculty, Junior class of B. H. S., and company workers and friends of the N. P. R. shops.
MR. and MRS. I. H. PRESTON,
11p and family.

Glycerin Mixture Stops Constipation

The simple mixture of glycerin, buckthorn bark, saline, etc. (Adlerika) acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and relieves constipation in TWO hours! Brings out old waste matter you never thought was in your system. Don't waste time with pills or remedies which clean only PART of the bowels, but let Adlerika give stomach and bowels a REAL cleaning and see how good you feel. Johnson's Pharmacy. advt

Sore Throat? Don't Gargle

This Doctor's Prescription Gives Quicker, Better Relief
Don't suffer the pain and discomfort of sore throat. Use a doctor's prescription called Thoxine guaranteed to relieve with the very first swallow. Gargles and salves are too slow and if they do relieve, it is usually only temporary.
Thoxine has a double action—it relieves the soreness and goes direct to the internal cause. It contains no harmful drugs and is safe and pleasant for the whole family. There is nothing better to stop coughing due to Thoxine, put up ready for use in 35c, 60c and $1.00 bottles. Money back if not relieved. Sold by Skauge's and all other good drug stores. advt

Send us your fur trimmed coats to be dry cleaned and steamed. You will appreciate our workmanship on any garment you send to us.

A REAL BARGAIN IN A NORTH SIDE HOME

We have a six room home with furnace, bath and garage, on good North Side lot, that we are offering way below its true value. Owing to the owner living out of town, it has been rented and permitted to run down. By spending a little cash and some labor you can own your own home at a low price, or can make a nice profit if you want to sell.

Price $2000; $200 cash, and easy monthly payments like rent.
